The Criminal Defense Team Featured on CBS’s “48 Hours” for Successful Defense in High-Profile Northern Indiana Case, State of Indiana vs. Alison Davis

INDIANAPOLIS, IN (October 6, 2025) — The Criminal Defense Team of Baldwin, Perry & Wiley, PC, will be featured on this Saturday’s episode of CBS’s acclaimed true-crime series 48 Hours, “A Death in the Stairwell.” The episode spotlights attorneys Andrew Baldwin and Maxwell Wiley in their vigorous defense of Alison Davis, a New Haven, Ind. woman who was accused of murdering her husband — a case that ultimately ended in her acquittal.

“As a firm, we are dedicated to protecting constitutional rights and upholding the principles of justice,” said Baldwin, Founding Partner of The Criminal Defense Team, who also was part of the defense team representing Richard Allen in the Delphi case. The inclusion of Baldwin and Wiley in 48 Hours reflects not only their strong advocacy on behalf of clients but also our firm’s broader mission to bring transparency to the criminal justice process.

With more than 100 years of combined legal experience, The Criminal Defense Team has earned a reputation as one of Indiana’s leading criminal defense firms. The firm is also proud to have four attorneys certified by the National Board of Trial Advocacy (NBTA) — a distinction held by fewer than 1% of lawyers nationwide.

The episode airs Saturday night on CBS4 (Indianapolis) and streams on Paramount+.
